

| Athletes with a Physical Disability  |           |                                |                       |                     |
|--|-----------|--------------------------------|-----------------------|---------------------|
| Funding source   |           |                                |                       |                     |
|  | Term cost | Halberg (if athlete is funded) | Tri Star Contribution | Parent Contribution |
| STAGE 1   |           |                                |                       |                     |
| (10 weeks 1:1)   | $400.00  | $340.00                       | -                     | $60.00             |
| 45 minute session   |           |                                |                       |                     |
| STAGE 2   |           |                                |                       |                     |
| (10 weeks 1:2 minimum)   | $300.00  | $255.00                       | -                     | $45.00             |
| 45 minute session   |           |                                |                       |                     |
| STAGE 3   |           |                                |                       |                     |
| (10 weeks 1:4 minimum)   | $200.00  | -                              | -                     | $200.00            |
| 60 minute session   |           |                                |                       |                     |
| STAGE 4   |           |                                |                       |                     |
| Coach assisted GFA class *   | $250.00  |                                | $50*                 | $200.00            |
| * For some athletes they are better suited to having on going private coach support in a regular GFA class. At any point in this pathway, where appropriate, an athlete can join a typical GFA class with a coach assisting. |           |                                |                       |                     |
| * Tri Star contribution is subsidised through fundraising efforts.   |           |                                |                       |                     |

| Athletes with an Intellectual Disability   |           |                |                       |                     |
|--|-----------|----------------|-----------------------|---------------------|
| Funding source   |           |                |                       |                     |
|  | Term cost | Sport Auckland | Tri Star Contribution | Parent Contribution |
| STAGE 1   |           |                |                       |                     |
| (10 weeks 1:1)   | $400.00  | $100.00       | $100*                | $200.00            |
| 45 minute session   |           |                |                       |                     |
| STAGE 2   |           |                |                       |                     |
| (10 weeks 1:2 minimum)   | $300.00  | $100.00       | -                     | $200.00            |
| 45 minute session   |           |                |                       |                     |
| STAGE 3   |           |                |                       |                     |
| (10 weeks 1:4 minimum)   | $200.00  | -              | -                     | $200.00            |
| 60 minute session   |           |                |                       |                     |
| STAGE 4   |           |                |                       |                     |
| Coach assisted GFA class *   | $250.00  |                | $50*                 | $200.00            |
| * For some athletes they are better suited to having on going private coach support in a regular GFA class. At any point in this pathway, where appropriate, |           |                |                       |                     |

support in a regular GFA class. At any point in this pathway, where appropriate, an athlete can join a typical GFA class with a coach assisting.

* Tri Star contribution is subsidised through fundraising efforts.